During that tenure (333 wins), his teams have been represented by a first team all league point guard for 23 consecutive seasons. Each of those point guards has been awarded a full basketball scholarship at the Division I or Division II levels.

His personal accolades include 9 coach of the year honors, 2 undefeated seasons, 9 league championships, 60 all league players and 22 scholarship recipients. In 1995, he was runner up Converse National High School Coach of the year and a coach in the 1995 Nike All-American game aired on ESPN 2.

Twice he has been selected to be a judge for the Big East All Tournament Team.

During his coaching tenure, he was the camp director for Blue Star (10 years), and apprenticed under the tutelage of Kathy Rush, Dean Smith, John Calipari, Bobby Knight, Rollie Massimino, Theresa Grentz, and Jim Boeheim. He is the former director of USA junior elite camps and has a private basketball tutoring business of 80 players.

Finally, in 1997 and 2000, Coach Koch presented a clinic on point guard play at the Women's Final Four in Cincinnati and Philadelphia.
